

Friday: EPA Administrator Regan Travels to Ulster County, NY to Highlight Progress of Asbestos Removal Project at TechCity Site

WASHINGTON (October 26, 2022) – On Friday, Administrator Regan will travel to Ulster County, NY to tour the former TechCity site and celebrate the expedited removal of asbestos contamination under the Superfund program, as well as highlight the economic progress being delivered thanks to the public-private partnership between federal, state, and local officials.

Who:

- EPA Administrator Michael S. Regan
- Congressman Pat Ryan (NY-19)
- Joe Cotter, National Resources, iPark87 developer
- Johanna Contreras, Acting County Executive for Ulster County
- Community leaders

What:

Tour of iPark 87 (former TechCity site); press conference to follow

When:

Friday, October 28, 2022, from 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. ET

Press attending in person are encouraged to arrive no later than 12:45 PM ET

Where:

iPark87 – Main entrance
300 Enterprise Drive
Kingston, NY 12401

RSVP: Credentialed media should RSVP here no later than 10 AM ET on Friday, October 28.