Description

On Tuesday afternoon, 3/23/2010, I drove over to East Aurora to check on the site. It looks as though the former hardware store and AOOF hall will be demolished. It's vacant and junk is piling up around back. It's a great old building but last year this town and village had big plans for this spot.

Hardware store / AOOF hall.

Man, what a gloomy day! Time was about 4:30 PM. This is the AGWAY yard which is underlain by a remedial SVE system.

I believe we've lost a well along here.
