Blue Ridge Wilderness - Northville-Placid Trail (NPT) The Northville-Placid Trail (NPT) is a 133-mile trail through the Adirondacks; 11.6 miles of the NPT traverse through the Blue Ridge Wilderness. The NPT has two access points within/near the Blue Ridge Wilderness, the southern terminus is located near Wakely Pond and the northern terminus is located near the DEC Lake Durant Campground; these are also the only official locations within the Blue Ridge Wilderness that the NPT can be accessed through. dar River Road Round Top Sugarloaf Mountai Blue Ridge Wilderness Metcalf Mountain Moose River Plains Wild Forest Wakely Mtn Primitive Area Water Barrel Mountain Lake Durant Campground Township 33 Easement Private Lands P Parking Primitive Campsite West Canada Lake Wakely Mountain Trail Wilderness Other Trail Contour 50 ft Stream Road 0.275 0.55 1.1 Miles NEW YORK Department of ***Please respect private property. Stay on designated trails*** Environmental ***Practice Leave No Trace Principles** ***Emergency contact 518-891-0235*** Conservation April 2018 0 0.2750.55 1.1 Kilometers