

Independence River Wild Forest - Stillwater Fire Tower

Stillwater Fire Tower Trail ascends 1.2 miles and 550 feet from the trailhead on Big Moose Road to the summit of Stillwater Mountain (2,264 feet). The summit provides views of Stillwater Reservoir and the surrounding area. The fire tower on the summit has been renovated and is open to the public. The Observer's Cabin is located along Big Moose Road opposite the trailhead.

The fire tower and most of the trail are located on Big Moose Conservation Easement (private land). The public is allowed to use the fire tower trail but may not trespass on lands off of the trail or summit.

The trail and summit are closed to public use from the second Tuesday in October through December 20th.
