New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

DEC Policy

Issuing Authority: Commissioner Joseph J. Martens

Date Issued: August 9, 2013

Latest Date Revised:

I. SUMMARY

The purpose of this policy is to foster public participation in the Department's Volunteer Stewardship Program ("the Program").

II. POLICY

It is the Department's policy to foster public participation in the Program to help preserve, maintain and enhance the lands and facilities under the Department's jurisdiction at minimum cost to the state.

III. PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND

The Department of Environmental Conservation is responsible for the management of more than four million acres of state land and conservation easements and numerous facilities under its jurisdiction. From forests and lakes to parks and campgrounds, it is an enormous undertaking to preserve and protect such vast and diverse environmental resources. The Department's ability to adequately maintain these resources is greatly enhanced with the help of many individuals and groups that volunteer their time and talent to help preserve and enhance these resources for all to enjoy.

Pursuant to the powers set forth in ECL § 3-0301, the Department has made use of volunteers for a wide range of activities. Such activities may involve remediating vandalism, picking up litter and trash, establishing or maintaining trails, providing interpretive services for school groups and other citizens, managing fish and wildlife habitats, or otherwise providing positive benefits to state land and facilities.

This Policy establishes the procedures the Department will use to consider stewardship proposals made by individuals and groups through the Program Application process. At its sole discretion, the Department may provide the assistance of personnel, facilities and supplies in support of the activities described in the subsequent Agreement. Consistent with all other laws and regulations, stewardship activities may be recognized by the placement of appropriate signs on or near the designated stewardship area. Other forms of recognition, including but not limited to certificates, press releases, and newsletters may be provided as the Department deems appropriate.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

The responsibility for interpretation and update of this document, and overall management shall reside with the Department's Office of Natural Resources and the Office of Administration, or its successor.

V. PROCEDURE

The Department will invite and encourage individuals and groups to become active supporters of state land management through participation in the Program. Participants will be informed about the purpose of the Program, the procedures for entering into Volunteer Stewardship Agreements, and the responsibilities that go along with becoming a volunteer under this Program.

These procedures are to ensure that any stewardship activities undertaken through this Program must assist the Department in meeting its state land management objectives at minimum cost to the state. Volunteer Stewardship Program applications should be submitted to the appropriate Respective Management Authority.

The following guidelines provide the basis for Respective Management Authority review of stewardship proposals to decide their suitability for achieving Department objectives, their prospect for satisfactory completion, and the availability of Department staff for oversight and support.

A. APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Individuals or groups who wish to volunteer their services to the stewardship of state lands shall be given an application and information describing the Program.
2. A "Volunteer Stewardship Program Application" (Appendix I) shall be submitted to the Respective Management Authority by the individual or authorized representative of the group or organization.
3. In addition, each volunteer participating in the Program must fill out either the standard "Volunteer Application" (Appendix III) or the "Limited Use Volunteer Application" (Appendix IV), to participate in volunteer activities. An application form must be submitted for each individual, or in the case of groups and organizations, for each member, that will participate in any activity set forth in the Agreement.
 - a. Appendix III - Volunteer Applications will remain valid for the life of the Agreement subject to periodic updates. In the event a volunteer's personal and/or contact information changes, a new application form must be completed.
 - b. Appendix IV - Limited Use Volunteer Applications will be used for Stewards who are participating for a short time frame, up to five (5) consecutive days.
4. Each group or organization shall provide the Department with a list of individuals who are authorized to act as an "initiator" and/or "supervisor" for the purpose of initiating the volunteer applications found in Appendix III and Appendix IV for each member of the respective group or organization who will be performing volunteer activities pursuant to the Agreement. All original and completed volunteer application forms must be submitted to the Respective Management Authority for further processing.

5. Activities must comply with all applicable state and local laws, regulations, policies, and approved Unit Management Plans, Recreation Management Plans and Department work plans. In the absence of a plan, interim authorization of activities may be given by the Respective Management Authority. The Department may consider factors such as safety, environmental sensitivity, need, and cost in determining which state lands and activities may be eligible or appropriate for an Agreement.

B. ENTERING INTO THE AGREEMENT

1. Upon approval of the Volunteer Stewardship Program Application, the Respective Management Authority and the Steward shall review the proposed stewardship activities and other conditions of the Agreement.

2. An Agreement shall be completed and signed by both the Department and the Steward for each approved Volunteer Stewardship Program Application. Project specific conditions shall be a part of all Agreements, including provisions for training and for equipment related to the protection of the health and safety of volunteers.

3. Stewardship activities may be amended in the Agreement only by the express mutual consent of the Department and the Steward.

4. The Department may immediately suspend all stewardship activities and revoke the Agreement at any time during the term of the Agreement, at its sole discretion. If the Steward wishes to terminate the Agreement, he/she/it shall provide the Department with thirty (30) days written notice.

5. Stewardship activities shall be evaluated by the Respective Management Authority annually to determine whether they merit continuation or modification.

6. As volunteers in this Program, participants are provided with the same liability and workers' compensation protection as salaried state employees, as long as they are acting within the scope and terms of the Agreement and comply with the Department's guidelines for use of volunteers.

7. The Department may provide recognition of the stewardship activities by appropriate signage on or near the designated stewardship area, facility or by such other means as it may deem appropriate.

8. The Commissioner authorizes the Department's Regional Directors to enter into Volunteer Stewardship Agreements on his or her behalf.

9. Generally, Volunteer Stewardship Agreements will be issued by the Regional Office having Respective Management Authority over the natural resource(s), facility(ies) and activity(ies) that is/are the subject of the Agreement; however, Agreements involving activities in more than one Region may be issued provided that they are signed by the Director of each Region having Respective Management Authority over the natural resource(s), facility(ies) and activity(ies) involved.

10. Copies of all approved Agreements shall be forwarded to the appropriate Respective Management Authority (Division or Region), and to the appropriate Division in the Central Office, Albany.

11. Copies of completed volunteer applications must be maintained by the appropriate Region or Division having Respective Management Authority over the subject Agreement and in accordance with Records Retention Policies (three years from the date participation ends).

5) Recognition

The Department may provide recognition of the Steward and its stewardship activities by appropriate signage on or near the designated natural resource or by such other means as the Department may deem appropriate.

6) Land Use

7) Agreement and Renewal

This Agreement may not be modified in scope, or altered in any other manner, except upon the express mutual agreement of both Parties. The Steward shall have the option of renewing the Agreement with the approval of the Department and subject to the Department's continuation of the Volunteer Stewardship Program. This Agreement may be amended upon the mutual written consent of both parties. This Agreement shall not exceed 5 years in length.

8) Termination

If the Steward wishes to terminate the Agreement, he/she/it shall provide the Department with thirty (30) days written notice of the intent to terminate this Agreement.

9) Liability Protection

As volunteers, individual participants in the Program are provided with the same liability and workers compensation protection as salaried state employees, provided they are acting within the scope and terms of the Agreement, have completed the required forms and otherwise meet the requirements of New York State Public Officers Law § 17. This protection may also apply to individuals volunteering collectively as part of an informal group, but does not apply to an organization itself, whether or not formally incorporated, because it does not meet the definition of an employee under Public Officers Law § 17.

If a civil action or proceeding is filed against a volunteer relating to any alleged act or omission made within the capacity and scope of this agreement, the volunteer may request defense or indemnification by the State pursuant to § 17 of the Public Officers Law.

The volunteer must comply with Public Officers Law § 17, which, among other things, requires delivery to the attorney general (or an assistant attorney general), a copy of any summons, complaint, process, notice, demand or pleading within five days after being served with such a document.

The volunteer must also notify the Department's Regional Attorney for the Region where the incident occurred immediately after being served with such document. Please see the attached contact sheet to determine the appropriate Regional Attorney to contact.

The duty to defend or indemnify and save harmless is conditional upon the full cooperation of the volunteer in the defense of such action or proceeding and in defense of any action or proceeding against the State based upon the same act or omission, and in the prosecution of any appeal.

In all instances, the Steward must report to the Department Contact any injury, event or claim, arising from any actual or alleged act, error or omission occurring in connection with the Stewardship Program, as soon as possible and not later than by the close of business the next business day upon becoming aware of such an allegation or occurrence.

10) Liability Insurance for Organizations

Individual volunteers deemed State employees under State laws are provided with liability protection. However, the State is not legally authorized at this time to extend the same coverage/protection to organizations that may have members serving as volunteers or are organizing/overseeing volunteer efforts pursuant to a Volunteer Stewardship

Agreement with the Department. As a result, any organization entering into a Volunteer Stewardship Agreement is responsible for obtaining the appropriate level of liability insurance coverage in the event of any claim or litigation arising from alleged acts or omissions relating to its activities undertaken within the scope of the Program and this Agreement.

11) Health and Safety

Federal and State laws clearly set forth the standards for achieving the necessary, beneficial goal of safe and health-wise working conditions. To ensure minimal on-the-job risk to volunteers, Stewards will follow the Respective Management Authority’s health and safety policies, programs, and guidelines when administering their Programs. The success of this Program depends not only on the proper attitude of Stewards and volunteers toward injury and illness prevention, but the interpersonal attitude of each volunteer toward others. Cooperation by all volunteers under this Agreement is a key element to implementing and sustaining an effective health and safety program.

The Department is committed to ensuring proper training and information is provided to volunteers to ensure awareness of potential risks, to help them identify hazardous conditions and situations, and to be able to understand how to protect themselves while on the job. No volunteer is required to work at a job he or she believes is not safe. The cooperation of all volunteers is necessary to detect hazards and to suggest appropriate remedial measures.

12) Reporting Injuries

If any volunteer is injured while performing activities within the scope of the agreement, the injury must be reported to the Department contact as soon as possible and not later than by the close of business the next business day. The injured volunteer must inform any medical personnel that this will be a Worker’s Compensation Claim. The injured volunteer should not pay out-of-pocket or utilize his/her personal medical insurance.
