

Bulk Redemption of More Than 2,500 Beverage Containers

In order to prevent fraud from the redemption of beverage containers not originally sold in New York State, the law requires dealers and redemption centers to obtain the information below from any person that redeems more than 2,500 beverage containers (or $125 worth of 5-cent deposit containers) at one time. The law requires that this information must be kept on file by the dealer or redemption center for a minimum of 12 months and provided to the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC), if requested.

WARNING: Any person who willfully tenders to a dealer or redemption center beverage containers on which no deposit was paid in New York State may be subject to a penalty of up to $100 per container or up to $25,000 for each such tender of containers.
